

Privacy Policy

No uploaded file is advertised to the public and no file can be accessed without its private address.

File Privacy

The name, type, contents, and origin of your file are not saved, reviewed, or analyzed. The only monitoring that takes place are our automated tallies of file uploads and our automated cleaning of expired files.

Transfer and Storage Security

Although we take appropriate measures to ensure the privacy of our user's data, it's impossible for us to guarantee 100% security. For this reason, we suggest you do not use our service to share sensitive data. Once a file has been uploaded, it is your responsibility to share your file's address in a secure manner.

File Expiration

All uploaded files are designated to expire after 1 week. After a file has expired, it becomes inaccessible to the public and is permanently removed from our systems.
